Borrowing Equipment

PASSCAL equipment is available to any research or educational institution to use for research purposes within the guidelines of established Governing Policies. These policies provide that data collected with PASSCAL equipment be archived at the IRIS Data Management Center and that the data are openly available to the community. Instruments can be requested online using the PASSCAL Instrument Request Forms.

Who Can Borrow Equipment

- Instrument Use Policy

What is Required if You Borrow Equipment

- Instrument Request Form
- Instrument Use Agreement
- Data Delivery Policy
- Training

What Equipment and Services are Available

- Equipment Inventory
- Experiment+Schedules
- Field Staffing Policy
- Training
- Data Archiving Information
- Shipping Information

Source URL: https://www.passcal.nmt.edu/content/borrowing-equipment